Valuation / Value For Duty

Transaction Value

In the majority of the cases, the correct value to declare at export and import is the “transaction value.” The transaction value is the price paid - or payable - for the goods.

Customs considers the cost shipping and insurance as part of the transaction value (known as CIF value).

Country of Origin

Just the purchase and shipping an item from Canada does not grant duty free status to The U.K.

Shipping from Canada ≠ Canadian origin goods

To benefit from preferential duty free import to The U.K., goods must qualify under the rules of origin in outlined in the Canadian U.K. Free Trade Agreement (CUKTA).

All Shipments from Canada are subject to:

- Standard import processing
- Include importers EORI number
- “Most Favoured Nation” / default rate of duty (unless they qualify as originating)
- Restrictions on specific categories including food, drugs and alcohol

Canada's Import Tariffs / Duty

Import Duty is primarily determined by three main factors

- HS Code / tariff classification
 - Country of Origin
- = % Duty

$\% \text{ Duty} \times \text{Value} = \text{Resulting duty assessment}$

* Note that duty is sometimes based on volume, weight or other measurements rather than value

Canada-UK Trade Continuity Agreement (Canada-UK TCA)

The Canada-U.K. Free Trade Agreement (CUKTCA) addresses various aspects of trade, including market access, rules of origin for preferential duty free import.

The key advantage for merchandise trade is that Canadian origin goods can qualify for preferential duty free import. Be sure to include a certification of origin.
